

VOLUME 7, NO. 1 Spring 1989

Sorry, no PDF available

THE ONE STEP

You can take to assure the future of bat conservation worldwide . . .

is to include a bequest to Bat Conservation International in your will.

For information about how you can make a lasting gift to a cause you believe in. . . without any current expense, write or call for our new brochure today. Your inquiry carries no obligation. Contact:

Bat Conservation International
P.O. Box 162603
Austin, TX 78716
512/327-9721

All articles in this issue:

- On the Cover
- Bats, Bacteria and Biotechnology
- Help for Townsend's Big-Eared Bats in California
- vBat Conservation in California
- BCI's New "Bats of America" Program
- Found and Lost: The Rare Florida Mastiff Bat
- Education Series on Bats of America
- Colony of Endangered Big-eared Bats Grows
- Conservation Success in Czechoslovakia
- Eighteen U.S. Bats Candidates for Listing
- LETTERS
- New Activities in BCI's Science Program
- THE ONE STEP
- America's Neighborhood Bats Sales are Strong
- "Mark Trail" Comic Strip Takes Another Look at Bats
- REVIEWS