

VOLUME 9, NO. 2 Summer 1991

Sorry, no PDF available

Traveling Photo Exhibit

The James Ford Bell Museum of Natural History is sponsoring "A Celebration of Bats," a traveling exhibit featuring 40 of Merlin Tuttle's photographs of bats. The exhibit can next be seen at the following locations:

July 13-August 26: McAllen International Museum, McAllen Texas

September 28-December 18: Bishop Museum, Honolulu, Hawaii

All articles in this issue:

- ON THE COVER
- Help for Migratory Bats
- PREDATOR AND PREY: Life and Death Struggles
- SEEING IN THE DARK
- Tuning in with a Bat Detector
- Bats in the Wrong Place?
- James River Bat Cave Now Open for Visitors
- BCI to Host Bat Research Meetings
- Traveling Photo Exhibit
- Bats Driven from the University of Arizona
- One-Day Bat Study Workshop
- New Activity Book for Children
- Board of Trustees Adds Six New Members
- WISH LIST
- Here's a way you can increase your gift to BCI at no extra cost
- REVIEWS
- LETTERS
- Lock and Key